

COMMUNITY LIVING DAYS

On Friday October 20th Sean, Phil, Sue P., Mary Anne, Cheryl and me (Jason), All went to the community living Halloween Party. We all went in our costumes. We had Hot-dogs, pop. They had games like blinko, a jumping room called the haunted house. We could decorate cookies and there was a table where we could color a picture. It was wonderful to meet new people. We all got together to celebrate community living and Halloween.

I am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following paths God laid for me. I took his hand, I heard him call... Then turned, and bid farewell to all. And if my parting left a void. Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. Ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened.... Deep with sorrow I wish you sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full... I've

Savored much. Good

Friends, good times....

A loved ones touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wants me now....

He set me free!

Cindy's Corner

Hi Readers!

On November 13, 2006 Jack, Fiona and I moved into our new home in Surrey. It is huge compared to our old place. We now have three more roommates and one is my boyfriend, Don. In December Jenny Taylor moved into her new place in White Rock. Jenny is enjoying her new place.

On December 5, 2006 I along with many other performers for C.V.S. put on a Christmas play, "How the Grinch stole Christmas." Everyone that was in the play did a great job. Lots of people showed up including family and friends. There was a Christmas party after the play and we all enjoyed lunch and a visit from Santa Clause. He handed out gifts to everyone

On December 13 Jack, Fiona and I had a Christmas party for our family and friends in our new house. Thanks to Susie and Mary-Anne for the Christmas party they had. The food was great! It was wonderful to celebrate the holidays with family and friends. For New Year's eve my dad came by with my sister and took us out for dinner.

Happy holidays to all and see you in the New Year!

Saint Patrick's Day By Yaulanda Hennessy

St. Patrick's day is a fun day to wear green, to have parades, and parties. In Ireland it is also a religious occasion. St. Patrick was a bishop who brought Christianity to Ireland. He taught people about the bible. Some Irish people didn’t like that he was teaching. When St. Patrick died he then became a Saint. The Irish people that liked his teachings thought it would be nice to honor him by making him a day. So, on March 17th, Don’t forget to wear green!

Current Events by Yaulanda Hennessy

There is great excitement about the 2010 Olympics. There has been the unveiling of the Olympic flag, singing, dancing and artwork displays. Some people are very happy about the Olympics coming to B.C.. The government have been making preparations for the accommodations, the food, getting the arena’s ready and many other preparations as well. What ever happens it will be an event to remember!
